Boston Area Attorney Makes National Top Latino Lawyers List

Eneida M. Roman, a champion for Latino advancement and connector in the Boston area, was ranked in the Top Latino Lawyers 2017 list by Latino Leaders magazine. Roman, a resident of Wellesley, was one of four Massachusetts attorneys who were recognized by the national publication.

Roman is Founding Partner of Roman Law located at Four Copley Place in Boston, where she counsels her clients in real estate and estate planning, among other specialized areas. Roman's work outside the courtroom has been just as important and engaging. It is her passion for community involvement and public service that has driven her professional trajectory. She is Co-Founder of The Latina Circle, a Boston-based network with a mission to promote Latina women to positions of power and influence. In 2017, The Latina Circle launched Amplify Latinx, a collaborative movement to increase the representation of Latinos in elected and appointed positions, on boards, and commissions, and in c-suite positions.

Roman attended undergraduate and graduate schools at the University of Puerto Rico and Inter American University, both with honors. She is a graduate of New England Law School of Boston, MA where she was honored with the New England Service Award at the time of graduation. Roman is admitted to practice law in the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court, Massachusetts Federal District Court, First Circuit of Appeals, and the Supreme Court of the United States.
