Barbara J. Gislason Named Deputy Chief Editor of Union Internationale des Avocat's Juriste International

MINNEAPOLIS – Barbara J. Gislason, a solo practitioner in Fridley, MN, is proud to announce that she has been selected to be the Deputy Chief Editor of the prestigious Juriste International. This is the flagship publication of the Paris-based Union Internationale des Avocats. Ms. Gislason also serves on the Board of Governors for this body and continues to serve as the President of the U.S. National Committee.

The UIA was founded in 1927, right after World War I. Members include bar associations, practicing lawyers, and other legal professionals from 110 countries.

Gislason's book, Pet Law and Custody: Establishing a Worthy and Equitable Jurisprudence for the Evolving Family, was recently published by the American Bar Association's Section of Family Law. This 702-page book is the seminal legal work on this subject.
